

Chesapeake Region Lace Guild

Where lacemaking lives on

UPDATE FROM THE 2019 IOLI CONVENTION

Highlights from the IOLI Annual Meeting include:

- * Over 85,000 volunteer hours were recorded helping to maintain the organization's non-profit status. Don't forget to turn in every hour. CRLG's go to Tamara Webb.
- * IOLI has 75 active charter chapters. CRLG is one of those.
- * Chapters were asked to review what information would be helpful to them in the IOLI Handbook. Send suggestions to your Executive Committee.
- * If you want to receive the IOLI Bulletin in a digital format, you have to provide a valid email address. As a member you should have received a digital copy. If you didn't, your email address isn't valid. Corrections should be sent via text to 206.434.5571.
- * The 67th Annual Convention will be held July 17-26, 2020, in Mesa, AZ.
- * Nancy Razzio, Alexandria, VA, and a CRLG Member, was nominated IOLI Treasurer.
- * CRLG Member Karen Thompson was a teacher.
- * Other members attending were Linda Kay Benning and Anita Barry.

FALL LACE DAY

Hello Chesapeake Region Lace Guild,
REMEMBER to mark your calendars for Fall Lace Day, Saturday, October 26. We will gather at a new location:

Adventist Health Care Center for Professional Development
14915 Broschart Road, Suite 100
Rockville, MD 20850

Thank you to Alicia Clugh who has been able to reserve this free space for us!

The CRLG Board is pleased to announce that our speaker for Fall Lace Day will be Devon Their discussing the recent "Lace not Lace" exhibit at the Hunterdon Museum.

We will gather at 9:30a.m. for coffee and registration. Our business meeting will be a 10, with our speaker at 11. Following a bring your own brown bag lunch, we will be offering a few Mini Workshops from 12:30-2:00p.m.

Holly Van Sciver will be our vendor for Lace Day.

Watch for the next email from CRLG with more information and a registration form.

Find us on Face Book

Congratulations to the Winners of the CRLG Lace Awards at the Montgomery County Fair

CRLG presents 5 special awards for Lace Making at the Montgomery County Fair each year. This year the award recipients were:

Div 1 - Silk Bobbin Lace Scarf made by Kazuko Nagashima

Div 2 - Bobbin Lace Doily made by Yoko Barr

Div 3- Color pooling tatted doily made by Wendy Carballo

Div 4- Tatted Bookmark by Wendy Carballo

Div 5 Knitted Shawl by Deborah Lee

IOLI Website

CRLG Members Share the Love of Lace

Celebration of Textiles at the Textile Museum, Washington D.C.

Celebration of Textiles

On September 14, celebrate design, textiles, and the cozy comforts of home at a free festival for all ages. Build a fabric fort, watch demos by local artists, enjoy live dance, and

Memorial Service for Arlyn Charles

Arlyn Charles, longtime president of CRLG, died earlier this summer. Her sister, Mislynnne Charles has planned an east coast memorial service for Arlyn. It will be Sunday afternoon, Sept. 29 at 2:00p.m. at St. George's Episcopal Church, 915 N. Oakland St., Arlington VA 22203 (one block west of the VA Square metro stop). All CRLG members are invited.

explore spectacular fabrics from the ancient Mediterranean in the exhibition Woven Interiors: Furnishing Early Medieval

Egypt. Celebration of Textiles is free and will take place at the George Washington University Museum and The Textile Museum (Foggy Bottom-GWU Metro). #CelebrateTextiles

Several CRLG members will be demonstrating lace-making at this event.

Log Cabin Lacers to Gather at the B&O Railroad Museum

Log Cabin Lacers will hold their meeting on Saturday, September 14 at the B&O Railroad Museum in Ellicott City. For more information, contact Peggy Spencer alacegal@gmail.com

CRLG Board Selects President

The CRLG Board, in accordance with our by-laws, elected Mary Kay Totty to serve as president. The Board is still in the process of discerning a Vice-President and hope to have that determined by the time of our fall business meeting at Fall Lace Day on Oct 26.

CRLG Website

crlgweb@gmail.com

Remember to mark your calendar for
October 26, 2019 for the CRLG
Fall Lace Day

Don't forget your annual membership dues!

